

Katherine Connolly, Restaurant Manager

Katherine Connolly graduated from Queen Margaret University in Edinburgh with an honors degree in international hospitality management.

Initially, Katherine managed the Carlingford Marina Restaurant. However, in 1999, Katherine set off on world travels that would take her away from Ireland for 7 years. First, she went to Australia and toured the countryside training the staff of the five star Sheraton Hotels, whilst taking in the Australian countryside. Then, in 2000, Katherine joined the Queen Elizabeth II, best known as the Cunard line Flagship for more than 40 years. There, Katherine was to become the fastest promoted manager in the Cunard history. Staying with the Cunard family, Katherine joined the Queen Mary on its maiden voyage and was assistant restaurant manager in the largest floating restaurant in the world. After 6 years at sea Katherine returned to Ireland, and came to lead the team at Fire.
