

Sharon Hollywood, General Manager

Conferred from Newry Catering School with honours in hotel management, Sharon has worked in many fine establishments including of Dromoland Castle, Michelin star Nico's in London, the country chic Sheen Falls Lodge in Kenmare, and Clontarf Castle. In 1997, Sharon joined peacock alley as the restaurant manager, and within months she was promoted to General Manager. Under Sharon's management, the group swiftly acquired the Fitzwilliam Hotel and Lloyds Brassiere as venues for the Conrad Gallagher venture. Sharon nurtured the group for 2 years, and under her, it prospered.

Thomas Reads were to be the next to benefit from Sharon's expertise as she became GM of the harbour master and overhauled their food and service policies, transforming it into an institution in the IFSC. Sharon also played a key role in the inaugural years of the Forty Foot in Dun Laoighre, a branch of the Thomas Read group. Understandably, When MHL began a new venture they knew that Sharon Hollywood was the best candidate for GM. Sharon was head hunted, coaxed and cajoled, and in 2005 Sharon became the GM of MHL. In 2005 Sharon became the first GM of The Mansion House Business and Events Centre.
